

2019 Research and Ethics Education Program (updated 19/02/2019)

The St John of God Health Care (SJGHC) Research and Ethics Education Program aims to support the professional development of researchers and research personnel and to foster a culture of research ethics, so as to facilitate the St John of God Health Care (SJGHC) 2015-2019 Strategic Priority #1: “to be a recognised leader in the Australian health sector for provision of high quality health care” through “greatly increasing our education and research endeavours.”

The theme of our 2019 Research and Ethics Education Program will be Data and Information: Optimal Use in Health Care Research. What are the data and information opportunities, enablers and challenges to overcome in research, so as to accelerate innovation, enhance translation of research results and facilitate quality improvement within healthcare.

All internal and external researchers, research personnel and others collaborating with SJGHC in the conduct and/or review of research are welcome to attend. For more information/enquiries and to register for catering purposes, please contact Gorette De Jesus, Exec Officer, SJGHC Ethics Committee : E: ethics@sjog.org.au T: (08) 9382 6940
