

Applied Cultural Proficiency Upcoming Workshops in South West Sydney

The purpose of the Applied Cultural Proficiency Workshop is to support researchers and clinicians across our network to:

- Adopt an applied model of cultural competency to use in Indigenous health
- Use a progressive model of health interaction within Indigenous peoples
- Develop skills in engaging with Indigenous peoples

The Workshop will be facilitated by the Aboriginal Health and Wellbeing Stream Research Lead/Co-Chair Aunty Kerrie Doyle

Upcoming Dates

Workshop 1

Date and Time: 21st of June from 10.00am to 12.00pm
Location: Liverpool City Campus of Western Sydney University,
Room 03.4.01
100 Macquarie St, Liverpool NSW 2170
Register at <https://ahwcagliverp.eventbrite.com>

Workshop 2

Date and Time: 18th of July 11.00am to 1.00pm
Location: Campbelltown Campus - Western Sydney University
Building 21, Ground Floor Room 18, Narellan Rd & Gilchrist Dr
Register at Register at <https://camahwcagworkshop.eventbrite.com>

These are repeat workshops. Light refreshments will be provided to attendees.

For Further information please contact the
AH&W CAG Project Officer Chris Pitt at 0448
655 557 or through email at
c.pitt@unsw.edu.au